Reduced Adjective Clause Practice 2

Find and correct the mistakes in these sentences. If there is no mistake, write “no mistake.”

1. I made the soup you eating now.
2. Julie bought tickets to the concert she wanting to go to.
3. The teacher told us to study the chapters learning last week.
4. I think the cake baking in the oven smells delicious.
5. Jennifer found the book wanting to read.

Rewrite the following sentences. Reduce the adjective clause if possible. If it’s not possible, write “can’t reduce.”

1. The students who were playing soccer on the field got muddy.
2. Joe returned the book that showed him how to build a tree house.
3. The children went into the haunted house which is on the corner.
4. Steve worked at a company that develops software for the space shuttle.
5. The train that I ride to work everyday was out of service yesterday.
6. The doctor gave me a new medicine which made me fell sleepy.
7. Even though it’s cheap, I don’t want to buy a car that was destroyed in a tsunami.
8. I spent a lot of time swimming at a beach that is beautiful.
9. The video that was shown in class yesterday was about genetics research.
10. The bridge that goes across the river needs to be repaired before winter.